Leaves

One by one, like leaves from a tree,
All my faiths have forsaken me;
But the stars above my head
Burn in white and delicate red,
And beneath my feet the earth
Brings the sturdy grass to birth.
I who was content to be
But a silken-singing tree,
But a rustle of delight
In the wistful heart of night-
I have lost the leaves that knew
Touch of rain and weight of dew.
Blinding by a leafy crown
I looked nither up nor down
But the leaves that fall and die
Have left me room to see the sky;
Now for the first time I know
Stars above and earth below.

The only people for me are the mad ones, the ones who are mad to live, mad to talk, mad to be saved, desirous of everything at the same time the ones who never yawn, but burn, burn, burn like fabulous yellow roman candles exploding like spiders across the stars, and in the middle you see the blue center light pop and everything goes "Aww"

Thank you for giving me
these friends, Lord Jesus.
Help me to share you,
my greatest friend
with them.
I will miss Annie, Take care!

Jesus is Love, this I know, for He is kind. Follow
His lesson and you will find all there is to know of Love, For he Loved us so, He gave His Life.
Do you have this much Love? If you follow His lesson and listen to His word, you will see His Love and be able to share it with the world. For Love is Great. The greatness that the world is looking for. And it is right here anytime; just accept God and His Son, and you will see Them as one in Love.

Afoot and light-hearted, I take to the open road,
Healthy, free the world before me,
The long brown path before me, leading wherever I choose.

Henceforth I whimper no more, postpone no more, need nothing
Henceforth I ask not good-fortune -- I myself am good-fortune;
Strong and content, I travel the open road.

The earth -- that is sufficient;
I do not want the constellations any nearer;
I know they are very well where they are;
I know they suffice for those who belong to them.

(Still here I carry my old delicious burdens;
I carry them, men and women -- I carry them with me wherever I go;
I swear it is impossible for me to get rid of them;
I am filled with them, and I will fill them in return.)...

Student Life

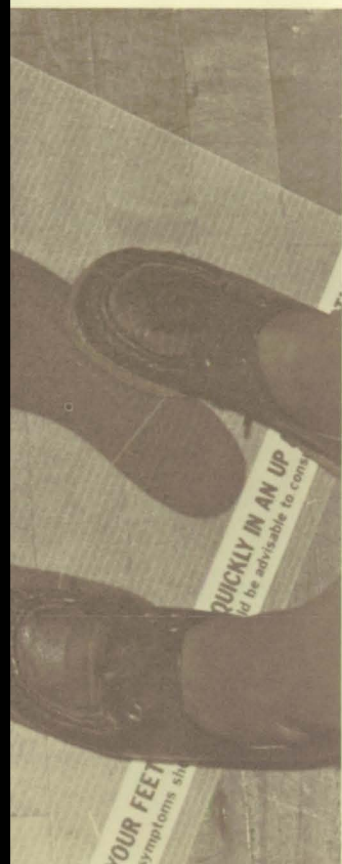

Elysium is as far as to
The very nearest room,
If in that room a friend await Felicity or doom.

What fortitude the soul contains,
That it can so endure
The accent of a coming foot,
The opening of a door.

Emily Dickinson

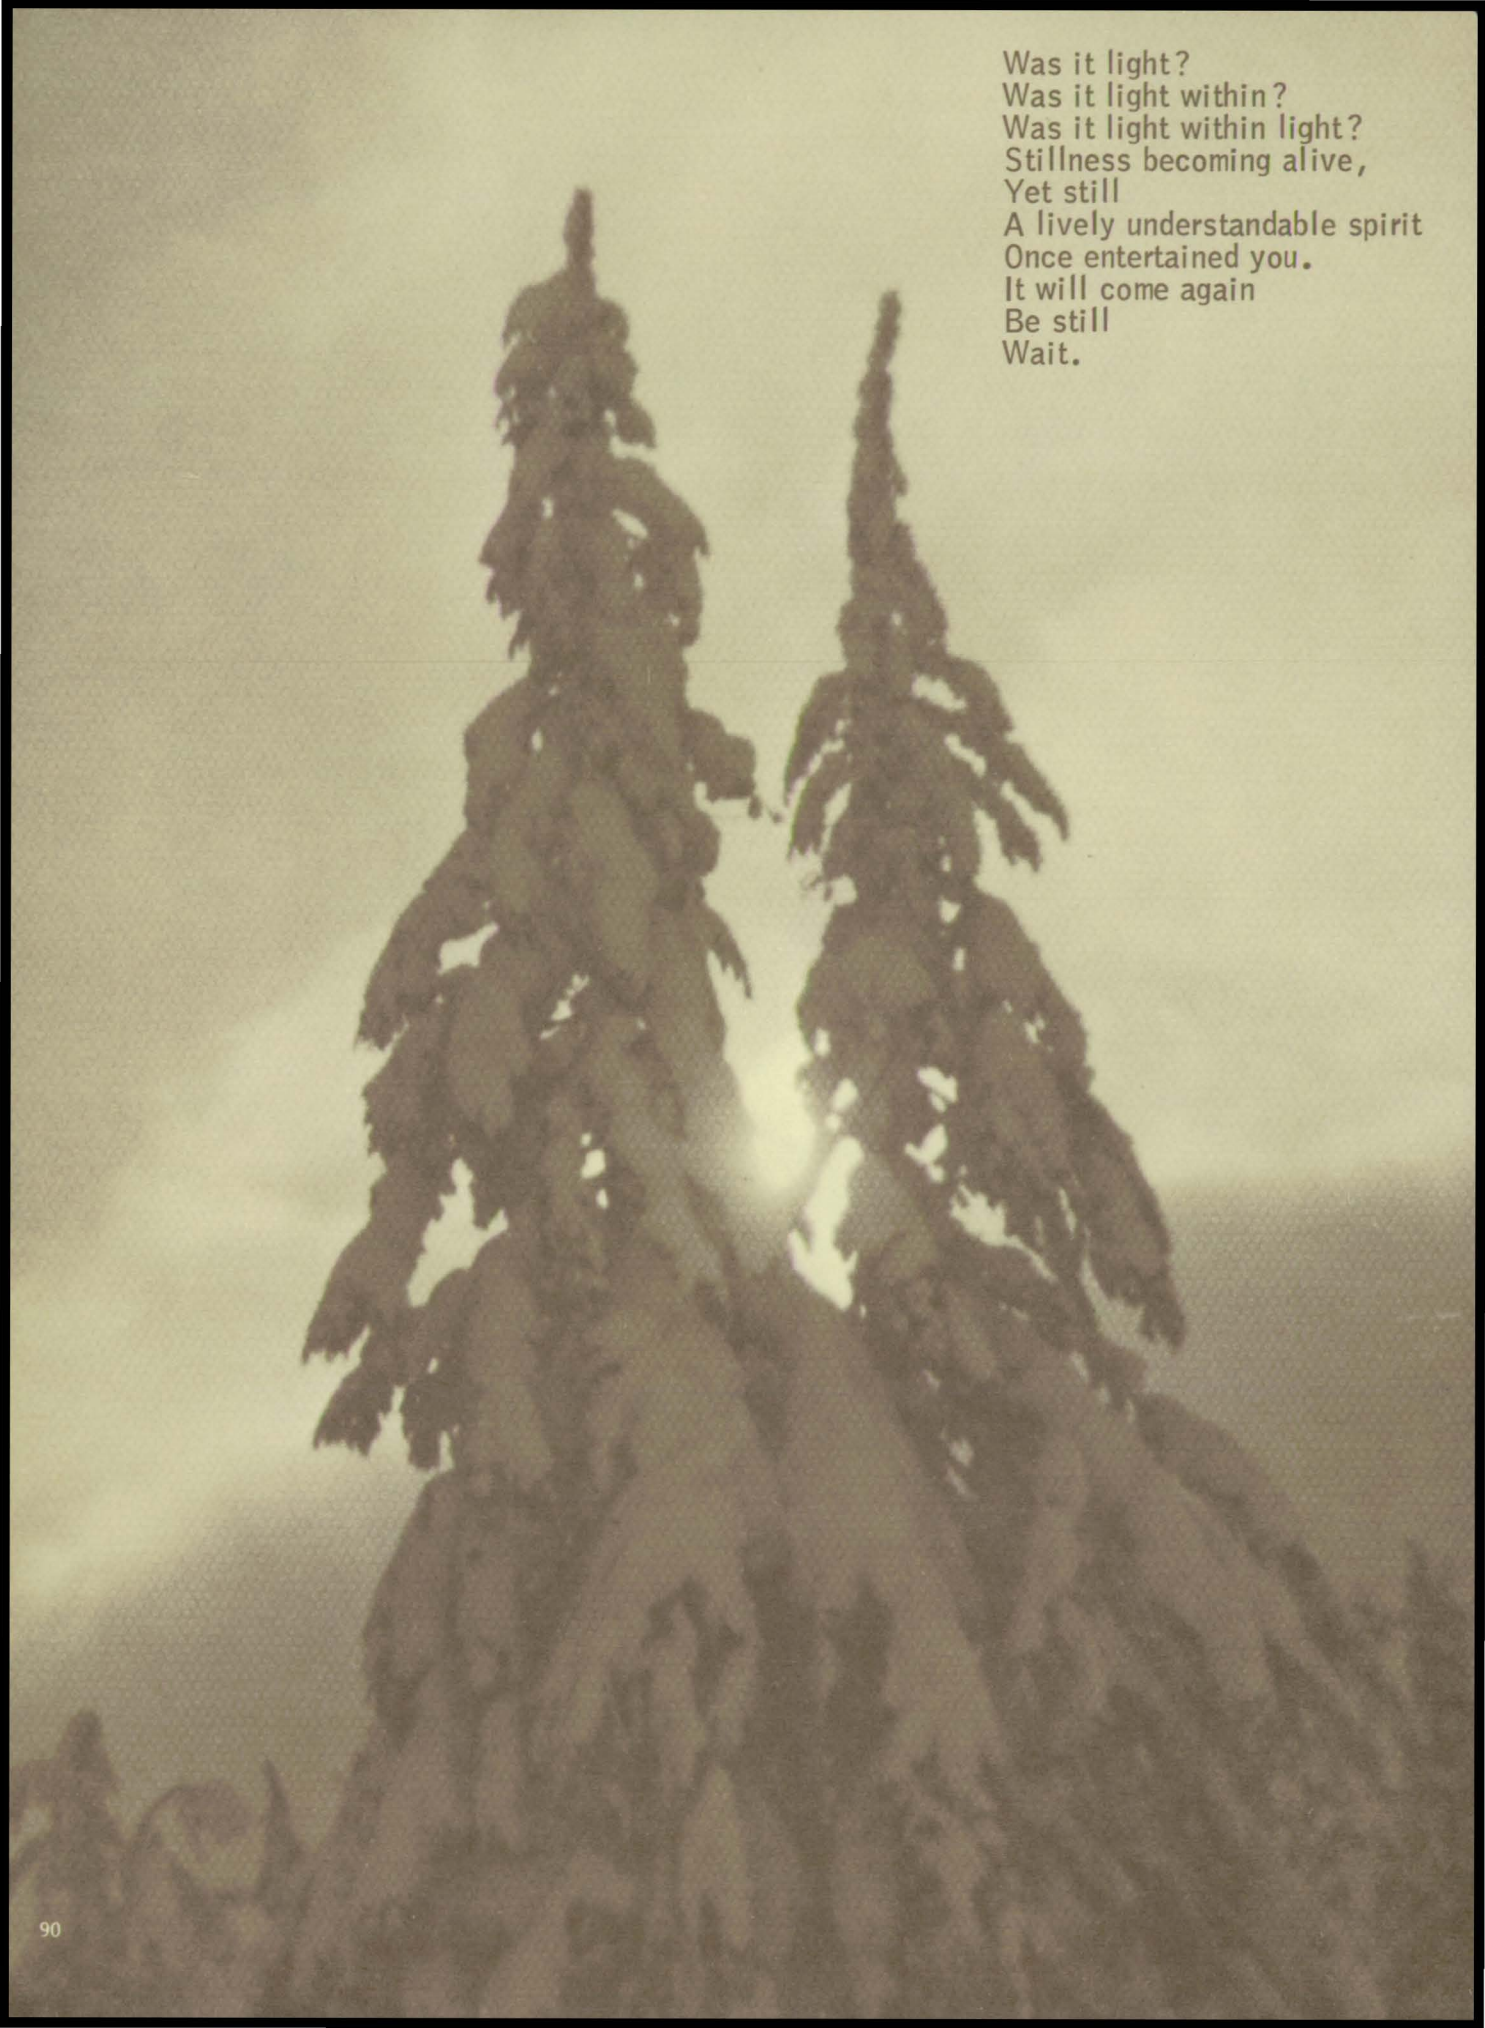

But it is human love, love
Concrete, specific, in a natural move
Gathering goodness, it is free
In the blood as in the minds harmony
Richard Eberhart

Looking beyond, or backward, more and more
We grow unfaithful to the unique minute
C. Day Lewis

Was it light?
Was it light within?
Was it light within light?
Stillness becoming alive,
Yet still
A lively understandable spirit
Once entertained you.
It will come again
Be still Wait.

Probe in the lifeless granities, scan
The stars for hope, for guide, for plan:
Live as a woman or a man.
John Masefield

Saying the amazingly simple things. . .
 The relationship at last is clear
 All bid goodbye as the future
 Vanishes with the tail-light around

Imagination is more important than knowledge.

Albert Einstein

Let me do my work from day to day,
 In field or forest, at the desk or loom,
 In roaring market place or tranquil room;
 Let me but find it in my heart to say,
 When vagrant wishes beckon me astray,
 "This is my work; my blessing, not my doom;
 Of all who live, I am the one by whom
 This work can best be done in the right way."
 Then shall I see it not too great, nor small,
 To suit my spirit and to prove my powers;
 Then shall I cheeeful greet the laboring hours,
 And cheerful turn, when the long shadows fall
 At eventide, to play and love and rest,
 Becuase I know my work is best.

Henry Van Dyke

Animals are such agreeable friends-
They ask no questions,
They pass no criticisms.

George Eliot

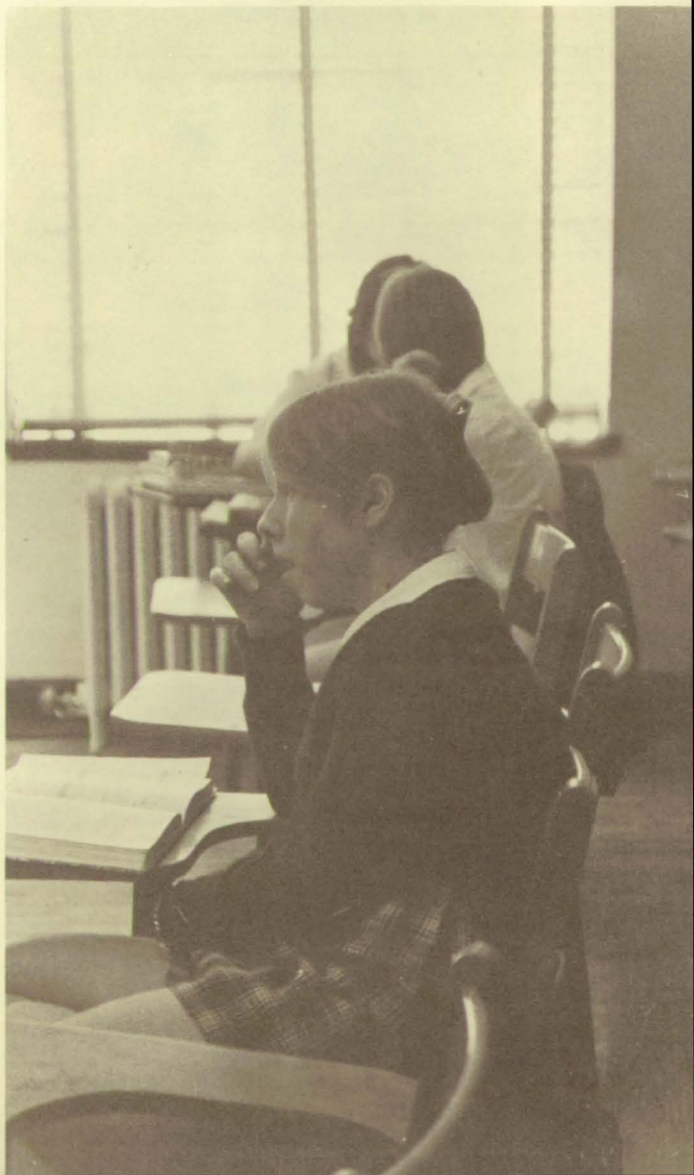

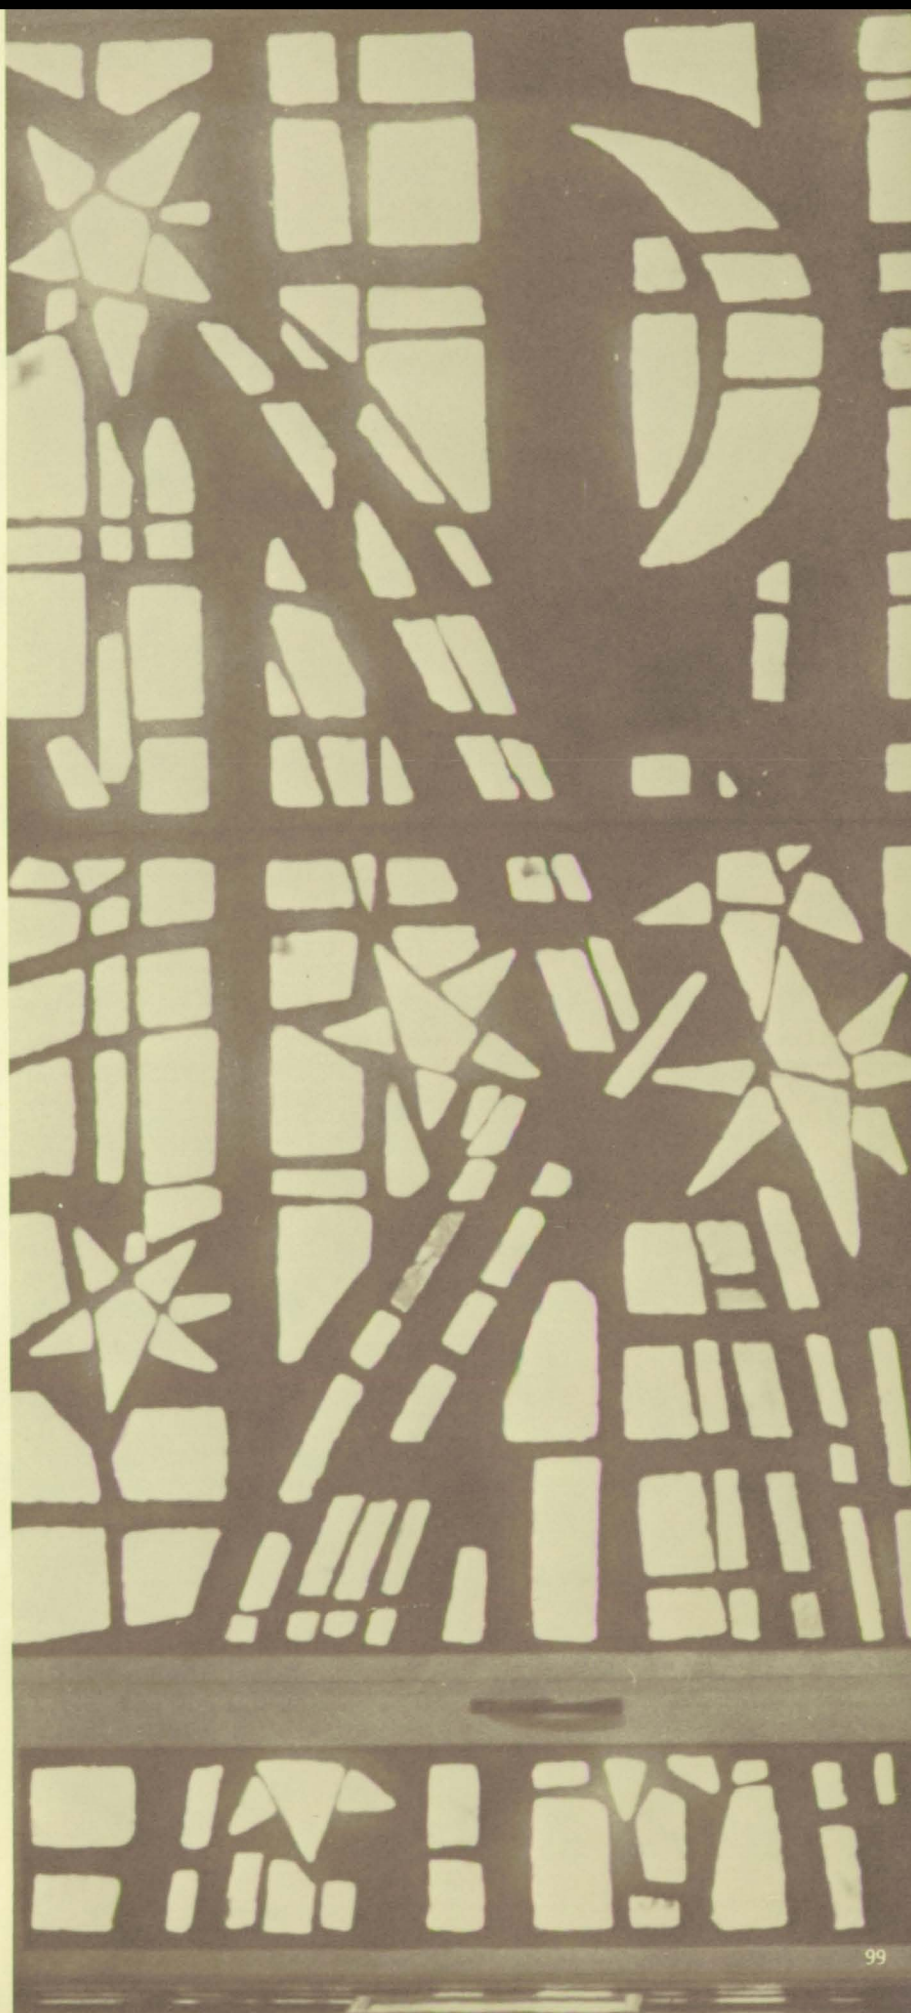

And let your best be for your friend,
If he must know the ebb of your tide,
let him know its flood also.
For what is your friend that you should seek him with hours to kill?
Seek him always with hours to live,
For it is his to fill your need, but not your emptiness.
And in the sweetness of friendship
let there be laughter, and sharing of pleasures.
For in the dew of little things the heart finds its morning and is refreshed.
The Prophet

Does the road wind uphill
all the way?
Yes, to the very end.
Will the days journey
take the whole long day?
From noon to night
my friend.

THE MIDDLE SCHOOL

Hey, look us over give us a hand.
We are the class
that really knows we can.
We are the greatest,
don't pass us up,
Cause if you do
you'll never see one
Just as good as us.
So take your chance
While you have it.
It's time for 79,
We're coming through
so move yourselves aside,
For it's 79, it's 79
the greatest class of all.
So look out world here we come

We'll miss you, seniors---
You're just as great as us!!!
